Nation's Largest Police Association Representing Airport Police and Firefighters Announces Statewide Endorsements

Los Angeles, CA - The Los Angeles Airport Peace Officers Association (LAAPOA), the nation's largest airport law enforcement union, today announced their endorsements of candidates for statewide office.

- US Congress Jane Harman
- Jerry Brown for Governor

"A LAAPOA endorsement is given after careful consideration to those candidates exhibiting qualifications that show a commitment to public safety, said LAAPOA President Marshall McClain." "Jane Harman has been a long time advocate for improving homeland security at the city's airports and ports. Her institutional knowledge we can ill afford to try and do without"

"At such a critical time, more than ever this city and state needs a governor like Brown who has experience and understands cuts to public safety is not the simple fix for the state." "By signing in the Peace Officers Bill of Rights (POBR) when Brown was previously Governor shows his commitment to law enforcement and by doing so, ensures a safer California."

"The men and women of LAAPOA are proud to add these latest endorsements to our earlier list of endorsed candidates; Steve Cooley for Attorney General, Betsy Butler for Assembly, and Alex Padilla for Senate." "All candidates will assist us in our efforts to make certain the nation's busiest airports remain safe."

The Los Angeles Airport Peace Officers Association represents more than 450 sworn police officers and firefighters of the Los Angeles Airport Police Department assigned to protect and serve Los Angeles International Airport (LAX), LA/Ontario International Airport (ONT) and Van Nuys Airport (VNY).
